

David is available to give presentations about his film series. Sprinkled liberally with film clips, 'behind the scenes' anecdotes, the latest archaeological discoveries and much more, both secular and religious audiences have been equally captivated. Here are recent comments:

'A gripping and dynamic presentation by one of the most interesting and charismatic speakers I have ever heard! David brings the past alive, striding through the ancient sites – sometimes accompanied by a photogenic camel! David's clarity and concision is compelling. Scholarly, yet humorous and at times deeply moving – he's inspiring in the extreme. His audience was enthralled throughout!' Marie Lathe

'What a Tour de Force! We were delighted with the presentation – so much 'flesh on the bone' of the Biblical Story! We thank God for you and the amazing 'body' of material you have put together. Many, many thanks!' RICO TICE (Senior Minister, All Souls Church, Langham Place)
